

Parliamentary Elections and Party Landscape in the Visegrád Group Countries

Workshop

Organizer: Institute for Comparative Political Research
www.ispo.fss.muni.cz

Date: 27th October 2006

Venue: Masaryk University, Rector`s Office
Conference language: English

9,00: Registration

9,20: Opening Speech: Petr Fiala, Rector, Masaryk University, Czech Republic

9,30: Opening Lecture: Sarah Birch, Department of Government, University of Essex, UK

10,30-13,00: Panel 1:

Electoral systems and electoral behavior – persistent volatility and personalism or clear signs of consolidation?

Chair: Sarah Birch, Department of Government, University of Essex, UK

Czech Republic

Roman Chytilék, Jakub Šedo, Institute for Comparative Political Research, Masaryk University, Czech Republic

Hungary

Róbert Tardos, Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

Poland

Artur Wolek, Institute of Political Studies, Polish Academy of Science, Poland

Slovakia

Olga Gyarfašová, Vladimír Krivý, Slovak Academy of Sciences, Slovakia

14,30-17,00: Panel 2:

Parliamentary elections 2005 - 2006 and the consolidation of party systems

Chair: Pavel Pšeja, Institute for Comparative Political Research, Masaryk University, Czech Republic

Czech Republic

Maxmilián Štrmiska, Institute for Comparative Political Research, Masaryk University, Czech Republic

Hungary

Zsolt Enyedi, Central European University, Hungary * European University Institute, Italy

Poland

Andrzej Antoszewski, Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław, Poland

Slovakia

Marek Rybář, Comenius University, Slovakia

Because of the room capacity, prior registration is required. In case of interest, register via e-mail vrablisko@fss.muni.cz.

Deadline for registration: 24th October 2006

